Sayonara Greetings

Praga Khan

You said my love was untrueYou said it was just a game for me
Sayonara greetings
No i need no sleep tonight
I just wanna be close by your sideLook into my eyes
Baby we can't you see
Can't you see you mean a lot to me
I am the color in your hair
I am the perfume that you wear
I kiss the ground you walk upon
Protect your eyes against the sunLet's forget the lies and fights
Make it better than it used to be
Sayonara greetings
Just remember the good times
Baby we can let our hearts collideLook into my eyes
Baby we can't you see
Can't you see you mean a lot to meI am the color in your hair
I am the perfume that you wear
I kiss the ground you walk upon
Protect your eyes against the sun
