

Virginia Is For Lovers

Mat Kearney

You became someone so close
That person I could trust
Why did it end up this way? What happened to the both of us?
I, I'm tearing up inside
I'm on a roller coaster ride Thinking of those memories
How your touch was so soft
Your eyes, they were so green
I would have never known how much
You'd come to mean everything to me Virginia is for lovers
And I wonder where do all the others go
And your heart belongs to another
And I'm leaving, Virginia is for lovers anyway No matter how long we're apart
I find it hard to let go
I'm sitting here so restless Time is moving so slow
I hate that I'm looking back
Reminiscing on photographs You were like my other half
We were perfect on our own
Then everyone came back Got harder to get you alone
See the hurting on my face
You were looking the other way because Virginia is for lovers
And I wonder where do all the others go
And your heart belongs to another
And I'm leaving, Virginia is for lovers anyway I never got to tell you
You walked away, you left me there
And you won't change no matter what I do
But I still care and I'm still here, yeah, yeah Virginia is for lovers
And I wonder where do all the others go
And your heart belongs to another
And I'm leaving, Virginia is for lovers anyway
