Now It's Gone

Ana Johnsson

Anything but empty words
Give it to me where it hurts
Anything just tell me something trueDon't take me for some dumb ass flirt
You see this girl, she knows her worth
Whatever thing we never had is throughI'm no longer blinded
By stories and lies
Clearly now I see
Right through your disguiseThis is how I see it
It's time to move on
You had your chance and blew it
And now it's gone, now it's goneThis time I really mean it
Alone, I'll be strong
How does it feel to lose this?
Now it's gone, now it's goneI know, I can't go on this way
Too much time has gone to waste
I gave my all and ended up with youFor sure you will regret this day
I'm not some kind of girl you play
Sorry but there's nothing you can doDon't try to fight it
I'm cutting all ties
You don't have to like it
Again I will riseThis is how I see it
It's time to move on
You had your chance and blew it
And now it's gone, now it's goneThis time I really mean it
Alone, I'll be strong
How does it feel to lose this?
Now it's gone, now it's goneI'm movin' on
I'm movin'This is how I see it
It's time to move on
You had your chance and blew itThis is how I see it
It's time to move on
You had your chance and blew it
And now it's gone, now it's goneThis time I really mean it
Alone, I'll be strong
How does it feel to lose this?
Now it's gone, now it's goneI'm movin' on Movin' on
I'm movin'
