In This Place

SPHERIC UNIVERSE EXPERIENCE

In this place we lie
Cutting slightly in vain
Hoping and praying you'll remember my name
If only tonight
And only tonight
You'll write back here I swear I'm done
Take your advice cos its easy to see
This so called romance never wanted me
If only tonight
And maybe tongiht
You write back here, I swear I'll
Cut, till crimson falls

Over the bedroom walls
234
Between you and I it's the 2-step I crave
Morbidly swaying to a dying refrain
If only tonight, and maybe tonight
You write back here
(I'm so sincere)
So will you lay me down tonight
And we'll be better off today
And I would die if you never got to know
But would it do more harm this way?
