Do yo thang, do yo thang, do it

Do yo thangGo ahead boy do yo thang, go ahead and just do yo thang

Go ahead boy do yo thang, go ahead and just do yo thang

Go ahead boy do yo thang, go ahead and just do yo thang

Go ahead boy do yo thangWho's idea was this, a Christian reader rappin' white

Whoever did myself flipped the lid
He's bugged out and he dances
Like Taylor HicksYou know you don't fit in
When you on my space only got three friends
It's Tom, your mom and a dude named Ben
I don't even know how I added himYeah, I ain't got no class

'Coz my life's still a Christmas past

I go to McDonald's ain't got no cash

I just order hot sauce and I walk out fastI head to Wallmart to buy some pants

I'm gonna wear 'em all year then take 'em back

Let me make it real clear on this hit track

I'ma do my thang, you can't stop thatGo ahead boy do yo thang, go ahead and just do yo thang

Go ahead boy do yo thang, go ahead and just do yo thang

Go ahead boy do yo thang, go ahead and just do yo thang

Go ahead boy do yo thang, go ahead and just do yo thangI don't think the kid is well

He sends viruses to his own email

He got five text messages all from himself

Sayin' you're whacked dude, L O LI really used to keep it real

In my little mini van with these tennis wheels

Drivin' up to the side just to get my mail

I kinda get my friesSo watch out now you better be careful

He's about to pass out 'coz I think that his head full

Man doin' ten cans of Redbull

Seventeen shots of Starbucks expressoI think I'm stuck in eighties

Short eye sores of fellows and ladies

Soccer moms and mini vans, Mercedes

I'm talkin' about KJ, so crazyGo ahead boy do yo thang, go ahead and just do yo thang

Go ahead boy do yo thang, go ahead and just do yo thang

Go ahead boy do yo thang, go ahead and just do yo thang

Go ahead boy do yo thang, go ahead and just do yo thang You know how I roll yo

Alfa for the cockroaches, old folks

Now don't fit your mo do

All I can say is this what God chose soWhen I call through you'll be like

Oh, no, what he gonna do? He's just tells so

And got a thing to prove slow your row bro

I bring Christ to you not the muscle'Cause he's just me life's hope

He isn't out when I walk on a tight rope

You can bet that I'll catch you, if you might fall

Life is hard, but He's on my life coastTell us you think about though

I can have the freshest rhyme flow

I can have the dopers life so

Without him though, well, me don't think so, bring itGo ahead boy do yo thang, go ahead and just do yo thang

Go ahead boy do yo thang, go ahead and just do yo thang

Go ahead boy do yo thang, go ahead and just do yo thang

Go ahead boy do yo thang, go ahead and just do yo thangGo ahead do it, go ahead do it

Go ahead do it, go ahead do it

Go ahead do it, do your thangGo ahead boy do yo thang, go ahead and just do yo thang

Go ahead boy do yo thang, go ahead and just do yo thang

Go ahead boy do yo thang, go ahead and just do yo thang

Go ahead boy do yo thang, go ahead and just do yo thang, go KJDo yo thang, do it

Do yo thang, do yo thang, do it
