

The Skating Song

RollerBlue

I'm skating on thin ice, saving pieces of the day
I realise at last, didn't like you anyway
Yeh things are different now no matter what they say
Sometimes things do change, it's a new game to playChorus
There are some things I'll never understand
Like broken promises, and some foreign lands
Wasting time, and friends who fade away
Like dreams that disappear, in the light of dayI'm skating on thin ice saving pieces of the day
Trying to decide, should I go, should I stay
Has it come to this, an adventure gone so fast
Seemed like the best plan, when I was at the startChorusSome good, some bad, some times never had
Some unrecognizable, some no going back
Some good, some bad, some times never had
Some kind of wonderful, some like coming homeChorus
