Fall At Your Feet

Magnet

Im gonna stay right here with you
'Cos youll be giving up the secrets of your trade
And then put your little demon inside me
'Til Im made no less than utterly possessedWhen you sing like an angel
And I fall at your feetI guess things will never seem the same again
'Cos without you Im like a torch without a flame
Not a case of fair or unfair, not a case of truth or dare
But your nerve of steel is gonna make me kneel
And its how I feel whenYou sing like an angel
And I fall at your feet
