

Easy To Crash

Cake

Clouds hung hugely and oppressively
Over our busy little cars
Clouds hung hugely and oppressively
We didn't notice, we didn't care, we didn't notice
Driving along in our luxury cars
Down to our pretty city of stars
Down to our pretty city of stars in our eyes
Money in pockets, mugs on TV, plugs in the sockets
You know it would be easy, so easy
It would be easy
It would be easy, so easy
It would be easy to crash
School teachers, beggars, bankers, Congressmen
Stargazers didn't see a thing
Stockbrokers, singers, dancers, architects
(Stars in our eyes)
We didn't notice, we didn't care, we didn't notice
(Mugs on TV)
Plugs in the sockets
You know it would be easy, so easy
It would be easy
It would be easy, so easy
It would be easy to crash
It would be easy, so easy
It would be easy
It would be easy, so easy
It would be easy
It would be easy, so easy
It would be easy
It would be easy, so easy
It would be easy to crash
