All I Need Is Everything

Aztec Camera

Tears, just like the jewels

Adorn their corporate crown

Weigh on me worthless and I

Shake them down and leave now

And have no royal thingsYou, would consecrate the ground

I paced in pain

And though those pavements

Caught your sorrow stainsThey fall from me and I say

Maybe don't fall for anything

That says it's never gonna

Give you everything I wish myself into your arms

To know that all I need is everything The size of the sea, and the sun in my eyes

And the line in my head

Yearning for more, only for more

These days are as bright as the days I have seen

In the wildest of dreams

Yearning for more, only for moreI wish myself into your arms

To know that all I need is everythingHold back the night, I am tired of my sight

That won't see anymore

More than today, threatening to stayHold back the night, I am tired of my sight
That won't see anymore

'Show me you care,' is 'Show me the door'
