Already Gone

Woven

And can you count the walks
And all the different talks
To say the same thing
Over againThen you'll realize
I'm already gone
Won't you come
Enjoy the funFree from judgment
Let the critics tongue be tied
As we search each others eyesFor a home renewed
And blessings understood
Empathy behind the lips
Before they've spokenInternal crash my heart has Frozen
It's a natural catastrophe
When will you see?And I count the ways
I betrayed your gaze
Everything taken for grantedAnd now I realize
You're already gone
Got to move onInternal crash my heart has
Frozen
It's a natural catastrophe
When will you see?Internal crash my heart has
Frozen
It's a natural catastrophe
When will you see?
When will you see?Internal crash my heart has
Frozen
It's a natural catastrophe
