

Maybe This Time

Engelbert Humperdinck

I Give you love, You turn away
Then wonder why it is nobody ever stays
You've been hurt
But so the world's been hurt a million times before
Don't you close the door

And Maybe this time, you'll find the other key
That opens up another door, and finds someone comes back for more
Maybe This Time, the cards will treat you right
Deal a little magic in the middle of some lonely night
Maybe this time this time

I always smile, act cavalier
But what I feel behind the smile's a little fear
I'm just like you, nobody's fool
Whenever someone gets too close I play it cool

But maybe this time, we'll find the other key
That opens up another door, and finds someone comes back for more
Maybe this time this time

You turn to go but then you hesitate
I wonder, can I make you wait
Aren't we a pair afraid to care

But maybe this time, we'll find the other key
That opens up another door, and finds someone comes back for more
Maybe This Time, the cards will treat you right
Deal a little magic in the middle of some lonely night
Maybe this time this time's for real.
