

Cowboy Dreams

Jimmy Nail

Love's a silver bullet that blows your world apart
I wanna be remembered as an outlaw, honey
The boy who stole your heart I wanna be the guy who wears the white hat
And rides across the plain
Gonna be your enigmatic stranger
Honey, you're looking at your Shane Cowboy dreams, cowboy dreams
You give me cowboy dreams
Cowboy dreams, cowboy dreams
You give me cowboy dreams If ever you're in trouble, if ever you are down
I'm gonna be the hanging judge and sheriff
Gonna ride your troubles out of town You're looking at a mountain
You're looking at the law
You're looking at a six gun legend
Fastest on the draw Cowboy dreams, cowboy dreams
You give me cowboy dreams
Cowboy dreams, cowboy dreams
You give me cowboy dreams I can make you happy, it's easier than it seems
I'm gonna ambush you at sundown
Gonna give you cowboys dreams
I'm gonna give you cowboy dreams Love's a silver bullet that blows your world apart
I wanna have it written on my tombstone
Here lies the boy who stole your heart Cowboy dreams
You give me cowboy dreams
Cowboy dreams
