It's Beginning To Look a Lot Like Christmas

Harry Connick, Jr.

It's beginning to look a lot like Christmas everywhere you go

Take a look in the five and ten glistening once again

With candy canes and silver lanes aglowIt's beginning to look a lot like Christmas, toys in every store

But the prettiest sight to see is the holly that will be

On your own front doorA pair of hop-along boots and a pistol that shoots

Is the wish of Barney and Ben

Dolls that will talk and will go for a walk is the hope of Janice and Jen
And Mom and Dad can hardly wait for school to start againIt's beginning to look a lot like Christmas everywhere you go

There's a tree in the Grand Hotel, one in the park as well

The sturdy kind that doesn't mind the snowIt's beginning to look a lot like Christmas soon the bells will start

And the thing that will make them ring

Is the carol that you sing right within your heartIt's beginning to look a lot like Christmas everywhere you go
There's a tree in the Grand Hotel, one in the park as well

The sturdy kind that doesn't mind the snowIt's beginning to look a lot like Christmas soon the bells will start

And the thing that will make them ring

Is the carol that you sing right within your heart
