If Only You Knew

Yes

I can lift you with my heart
Give you meaning every day
Cannot live without your truth
And be the true me, to be the true youPick the flowers from your floor
Put them in your arms for you, my love
Realize my life and more
Say you will and thenTake me home, make me clear
It feels so much better
Take me home to this heart of heartsIf only you knew
You caught me when I was falling
Yes, you caught me when I was falling fastAnd only you knew
You answered me when I was calling you
You saw me when I was dreaming you into my lifeEveryone who looks at you
Sees the loving in your every move
You're the healing of the soul
To be the true you, to be the true meI will be your strength all time
Ever wishing you this love and more
Forever be your guiding song
Say you will and thenTake me home, make me clear
To feel so much better
In this life, in your heart of heartsIf only you knew
How you caught me when I was falling
Yes, you caught me when I was falling fastAnd only you knew
You answered me when I was calling you
You saw me when I was dreaming you into my lifeWhen I feel the hurt in so many people's lives
I take a deep breath and think of your smile, your eyes
When I hear the sadness of this earth time
Then I take a deep breath and know that you understand
That you understandAnd only you knew
How you caught me when I was falling fast
Caught me when I was falling fastIf only you knew
How you answered me when I was calling you
You saw me when I was dreaming youIf only you knew
Yes, you caught me when I was falling fast
You caught me when I was falling into your life

Lyrics provided by