

What Ever Happened To Baby Jesus

The Fuzztones

In the house of Lexington
On the outskirts of the town
Lies an asylum built for people
Whose heads have all been blown
And a sinner named Baby Jesus
Who betrayed like Judas did
Turned on all his friends

To the local narco feds Whatever happened to Baby Jesus? v He's gone away

Whatever happened to Baby Jesus?

He's far away

Came a boy they called him Shoeshine

And he carried a marvelous kit

All kinds of things of beauty

And all that fancy shit

Baby Jesus, he got jealous

His motives delved in greed

He needed things from Shoeshine

For his soul to feed

Feed! Whatever happened to Baby Jesus?

He's gone away

Whatever happened to Baby Jesus?

He's far away

Life goes on, as the story goes

Baby Jesus finally got caught

As a fellow inmate turned him in

An inmate known as Mary

Who he trusted to the end

But when that end came

Baby Jesus was nowhere to be found

So take heed, and listen to what I say Beware

Beware

Baby Jesus is coming your way Whatever happened to Baby Jesus? He's gone away Whatever happened to Baby Jesus?

He's far away
