

Thank God You're Holding Me

Emily Hearn

Heart, my boy's got heart.
He's got a fearless way and he's all that I'm not.
Dreams, I'm a girl with dreams.
I've got a book full of songs and he's coming with me.
I've got a book full of songs and he's coming with me.
Long nights, long roads, start to wonder if we'll ever feel at home.
After it all, I thank God you're holding me.
Broken hearts, broken bones, some days I've never felt so alone.
After it all, I thank God you're holding me.
When I'm run down, and I'm feeling hopeless
When all the ones we love are so far away
When I've forgotten what makes it all worth it
You're holding me up, you're reminding me.
You're holding me up, you're reminding me.
