

Young And Lovestruck

Get Cape. Wear Cape. Fly

I've walked a hundred miles
I've seen a hundred thousand smiles
Not one of them as beautiful, as beautiful as yours
And all the petrol station flowers
Or all the stolen looks in the small hours
Will never know, we'll never know, we'll never know why Young and lovestruck will find themselves
Stuck right bang in the middle of melodrama and fear
TV says that the insecure will always be
Lonely and business stands to improve, improve And how times have changed
And our love songs are re-arranged
For different names, a different face
I'll pretend that it's for you And with that sentiment intact
Please keep the first line as a fact
You never know, you never know
You never know why Young and lovestruck will find themselves
Stuck right bang in the middle of melodrama and fear
TV says that the insecure will always be
Lonely and business stands to improve, improve All my infatuations, they never made it past
The Internet or a night you'll regret And all the fashion types, are shagging indie types
And teaching them, how to smoke and how to dress
And they're dressing to impress
And they're dressed like all the rest Young and lovestruck will find themselves
Stuck right bang in the middle of melodrama and fear
TV says that the insecure will always be
Lonely and business stands to improve, improve Young and lovestruck will find themselves
Stuck right bang in the middle of melodrama and fear
TV says that the insecure will always be
Lonely and business stands to improve, improve

Songwriters

Nitin Sawhney; Samuel Lloyd Duckworth Published by

WARNER/CHAPPELL MUSIC PUBLISHING LT Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941.
Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>