

Another Tear Falls

Walker Brothers

Bacharach-David
Now and then
I see you passing by
And for a while
I don't begin to cry
But just when I think I'm all cried out
Another tear falls
Another tear falls
And then I know
You are still here in my heart
You are still here in my broken heart
Everytime I go with someone new
I tell myself I've gotten over you
But just when I think I'm all cried out
Another tear falls
Another tear falls
And then I know
You are still here in my heart
You are still
Here in my Broken
Heart
