

Subtle Alliance

Living Sacrifice

All that is, all that's left behind me
All that once, all that once was tempting
Threatens to, threatens to haunt me once again
To steal my, to steal my mind Allied unaware, allied unaware On this path, on this path toward hopelessness
Helplessly, helpless clings to what's been shown I missed the chance
I could not control the circumstances
The circumstances took a hold Along the way, along the way
Allied with the enemy
Along the way, along the way
Allied with the enemy Along the way I missed it
Avoiding all repentance
Along the way I missed it
Becoming selfish There is only one way out of here
There is only one way out of here
In Your presence Jesus, break away to freedom Allied, allied unaware Allied, allied unaware Allied with the enemy
Unaware
Unaware of his death grasp
