

Because Of You

Meat Loaf

I was so hypnotized
By the smile in your eyes today
Flying free as a bird
Caught inside every word you say
I want everyone to see
This is big time, this is larger than life
See the sparks fly when you're standing by my side
Every step, every move, everything I do
Life is beautiful because of you
Every breathe that you give
You are my sweet oxygen I breathe
You made me fall away fast
So my dreams could get pass the end
I want everyone to feel
This is big time, this is larger than life
See the sparks fly when you're standing by my side
Every step, every move, everything I do
Life is beautiful because of you
How did I survive before
You came into my life?
I'd do anything at all
Anything at all for you
This is big time, this is larger than life
See the sparks fly when you're standing by my side
Every step, every move, everything I do
Life is beautiful because of you
All because of you
Because of you
Everything I do
Life is beautiful because of you
This is big time, this is larger than life
See the sparks fly when you're standing by my side
Every step, every move, everything I do
Life is beautiful because of you, because of you
