

Head Stones

Playalitical

CHORUS:

Putin roses on my homeboys head stones
Zoning out to the voices in my head phones
In the padded room alone spillin to the rain drops drink until the sunrise smoke until the pain stop

REPEATx1

-Verse 1-

See ya weep and then ya burn wish the tables would turn wish ya enemies were sleepin wit the worms ya try to leave it and mature but it leaves and it returns and it eats ya when ya sleepin and it screeches in ya ears ya start eatin up ya words and beatin up ya nerves and ya soul gets bruised but you bleed and then you learn then you lead into the worst evil in this earth and the people make you hurt cuz thier evil and thier cursed and you feel it all alone the coldnest in ya bones ya start getin in that zone ready for vengance with the chrome then you turn to the bottle and it goes empty but the problems still there so you burn a little sensi and you get a little tipsy and act on your emotions comotion your trigger finger goes into convulsions and you pay it foward in a negative way its the circle of the foolish man set in his ways

CHORUS:

Putin roses on my homeboys head stones
Zoning out to the voices in my head phones
In the padded room alone spillin to the rain drops
drink until the sunrise smoke until the pain stop

-Verse 2-

I make dark music for you heart before you loose it before you sparkin with that oozie making parks translucent like a dart that hits ya groove thru ya skin and starts oozing its the art that i use to help ya stay out institutions see ya blame it on yourself you hide and then you run then you start thinkin about everything you coulda done and you wait for inner change twiddlin ya thumbs yea your nimble and ya num and it feels simplier to lung and lash out hidin from the sun now your cooped up in your room goin kookoo wit ya gun and you feel a little loopy from the damage thats been done need to loosin up before we loose another one you just need to recoup and stay away from lock down take a breather cuz its time to stop now before ya pay it foward in a negative way its the circle of the foolish man set in his ways

CHORUS:

Putin roses on my homeboys head stones
Zoning out to the voices in my head phones
In the padded room alone spillin to the rain drops
drink until the sunrise smoke until the pain stop

-Verse 3-

Feel like jehova's motive for the oppossed and homeless this is guns and roses this is nuns and mosses opposin the same side and niether one of em knows it my good side bad side coarlin and boastin you fall and you progress stand up tall when your depressed if you make it thru this mess thru it all you will be blessed but if you stall and you just settle for less you will fall short of it all and be second to best now ya caught in a maze in amazement off haze in ya basement ya babies are screamin all late and you hate it you wait and you wait but you aint doin a thing to change it you just need to get the message from ya eyes and ya ears you just need a hot second before your doin light years before ya pay it foward in a negative way

its the circle of the foolish man set in his ways

Putin roses on my homeboys head stones
Zoning out to the voices in my head phones
In the padded room alone spillin to the rain drops
drink until the sunrise smoke until the pain stop
