

Wanderlust

Fozzy

I've been around the world a thousand times
Seen the same places and faces and traces
I never forget, regret, reject, expect
Quenching my thirst
Complacency is curse I climb from mountain to mountain
Bird on a wing
Like the wind
The song that I sing Never satisfied to stand in line
Wasting my mind
It's my time to shine I just can't get away from yesterday
But I keep on living the wanderer's way
And over and over I start anew
But I can't escape the thoughts of you I tried to play your game a thousand times
And I let it infect and detect and affect
My clarity, my charity, my destiny
Sold out who I was
And what I could be I drift from moment to moment
Looking for serenity
A place to stand
A home for me
In a world that's fueling insanity Never satisfied to stand in line
Wasting my mind
It's my time to shine
