

Oh Well

Depeche Mode

Oh you've got a way about you
Oh I know so much about you
GirlLife won't be the same without you
Life will surely be the one to tellListen to what she's trying to tell you
She could be the one who's going to save youOh well
Oh wellLife won't be the same without you
Life will surely be the one to tellIt's nothing to feel ashamed about
Nothing I can complain aboutOh well
Oh well
Oh well
Oh wellWooooaaaaa mummaListen to what she's trying to tell you
She could be the one who's going to save youOh well
Oh wellIt's nothing to feel ashamed about
Nothing I can complain aboutO-oh well
Oh well
Oh well
Oh wellOh you've got a way about you
Oh I know so much about you
GirlLife won't be the same without you
Life will surely be the one to tellOh well
Oh well
Oh well
Oh wellLife won't be the same without you
Life will surely be the one to tellOh well
Oh well
Oh well
Oh well
