Motivate

WIO-K

Raise the gate, motivate the place
Take a taste as we blaze on through the fate
Clean slate, move on, chant all night long
Gonna sing my song 'til the early morn
When the moon shines down all upon the land
This ain't no game and this ain't no scam
I ran from BK unto Japan
From Israel to the Holy Land
Open up and breathe in now out
Shout out loud, won't you let it all out?
Spit fountains on the day or night
Shine bright when I fly through the night
Would you leave it all behind revelation?
Wake in the morning to find you waiting
Even in a desperation feel something that's embracing
Feel something that's embracing
Revelation wake in the morning
Even in a desperation
Even in this desperation
Even in a desolation
Got to trail my path, slash page combat with a glass intact
No react and stack build up the nation
Can't replace them and a youth them gone invasion
It's a journey, I'm a wandering soul
Speak up on the unspoken and a pour out the timeless suffering
And lift up on the curtain, spin on the wheels of creation
I'm a searching, I'm a searching search light
When the time is right and the night is ripe
Would you leave it all behind revelation?
Wake in the morning to find you waiting
Even in a desperation feel something that's embracing
Feel something that's embracing
Revelation wake in the morning
Even in a desperation
Even in this desperation
Even in a desolation
Catch the arrows filled with poison
Catch the arrows
Catch the arrows filled with poison

Catch the arrows filled with poison
Catch the arrows
Catch the arrows
Catch the arrows filled with poison
Catch the arrows
Catch the arrows
Pour out the timeless suffering
Pour out the timeless suffering
Pour out the timeless suffering
Would you leave it all behind revelation?
Wake in the morning to find you waiting
Even in a desperation feel something that's embracing
Feel something that's embracing
Revelation wake in the morning
Even in a desperation
Even in this desperation
Even in a desolation
Even in a separation
