Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

Read between the lies of homespun advice
Nothing that you say, let's carry on here
Seething day to day, Its not possible to fray
View it coming anyway, Please carry on here
Let's redesign the goings on, Hey optimism anyone?
We believe the currency of love
We believe the virgin falls in love
Care free the beat'll pass it on,
Please believe the currency of love
Watch your vital signs, Complete the no holds guy
Now you won't be advised, let's carry on here
Resupply ok fine, baby you're right so much more than I can take please carry on here
Let's redesign the goings on Hey optimism anyone?
We believe the currency of love
We believe the virgin falls in love
Care free the beat'll pass it on,
Please believe the currency of love
Entertain you
Rearrange you
Forever claim you
Its demanding
Not understanding
But everlasting
Let it soothe you
Creep into you
And all that moves you
Cause you're seeking Cause you're needing
So start believing
We believe the currency of love
We believe the virgin falls in love
Care free the beat'll pass it on,
Please believe the currency of love
