

Devil Smiling

Crossley Hunter

The devil's smilin' over there
Never thought that she could be one
If I ever could become terrorized and paralyzed and wrong
Don't you dare think about nothing and I won't hold out She came and tells me all about her favourite story, said maybe we could make it ours
But oh she never thought we could be more than what we ever thought when we were naked on the floor
Don't you dare think about nothing
I won't hold out
I've been there swearing by nothing
Your using me you lie to me
Your laughing all along
Won't you tell me I'm wrong
You got me thinking
Won't you tell me I'm wrong
Don't you dare think about nothing and I won't go
