Horizon

Whitaker

Get up, slow, come down
Let it go, sleep sound
This is all I've found
This is the one night of

Running, go, feet, ground
Knowing years run out
This is where we bow
This is the ending of

Horizon
The night is young
We welcome
The rising sun

Going, float, know how
Leaving all your doubts
Moving through that cloud
This is the only love now

Horizon
The night is young
We welcome
The rising sun

All the time that you've been growing up
(Now that you're on your own)
All the love that we've been giving out
(Know that you're not alone)
Time to take it now
(We'll be here waiting)
On your way
(For you to come home)
