Water

Take 5

{Clay}
Something in the spring
Is making me grow in love with you,babe
Something in the summer breeze
Is blowing me into your arms,babe
Girl you know you got me open
There's no time for anyone else
You're a priceless pearl in my possesion,
And you are rare
If you ever start to wonder
What you mean to me
Let me sum it up in just two syllables
Water{Chorus}
You are the earth beneath me feet ({Clay} I'm planted baby)
You are the wind thats blowin' me({Clay} Into your arms)
You are the fire in my heart ({Clay} But most of all)
You are the purest element water,water{Tilky}
Girl,oo, since I drank from your fountain
I,I thrust no more babe
Girl you are, the virtuous woman
That I desire
Girl you know you got me open
There's no time for anyone else
You're a priceless pearl in my possesion
And you are rare
If you ever start to wonder
What you mean to me,
Let me sum it up in just two syllables
Water,Water{Chorus}
You are the earth beneath my feet({Tilky}I'm planted baby)
You are the wind thats blowin' me({Tilky}Into your arms)
You are the fire in my heart({Tilky}But most of all baby)
You are the purest element water,water{Tilky}
I'd run through the middle of the desert
At the speed of light
Just to have one drop of you babe
(Repeat){Chorus}
You sre the earth beneath my feet ({Tilky} Yes you are)
You are the wind thats blowin me({Tilky}Blowin' me into..)

You are the fire in my heart ({Tilky}You're the fire in my heart)
You are the purest element ({Tilky} Oooh yeah)Girl you're like water to me
Girl you're like water to me
Girl you're like water to me
Girl you're like water to me
