

She Flies On Strange Wings

Golden Earring

From the Albums:

* Seven tears

* Golden Earring Live

* Naked II

* Last blast of the century
Lonely is the night without you

Just as lonely as a shepherd without sheep and where flies the falcon, in the high sweet air

Without hunting in the Sprane Valleys deer

She wears softness as a gown

She spreads magic all around

Her feathers still untouched

She takes but nothing and she gives so much

refrain:

She flies on strange wings

She flies on strange winds

She brings strange things

She flies on strange wings

She takes off when she desires

Silence grows on her lips

She can bring you so much higher

She spreads love on all her trips, yeah

refrain

Woke up this morning and this feeling came to my head

To fly with her from sky to sky

'Cause my mind seemed to be dead

So I floated up towards her on my mutilated wings

But all the blackness sings against me now

It's the lady of the strange wings

She wears softness as a gown

She spreads magic all around

Her feathers still untouched

She takes but nothing and she gives so much

refrain

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>