

So Now What

The Shins

[Chorus]

I had this crazy idea
Somehow it goes to the end
Change lies in every direction, tonight
Guess we'll just begin again[Verse 1]

Oh girl, it's been a while
Since we met, out there in the cold
Seems so long ago
It's hard to imagine

The lives we used to have
When the nights were rather cold
So now what?[Chorus]

I had this crazy idea
Somehow it goes to the end
Change lies in every direction, tonight
Guess we'll just begin again

I think you know you're my best friend[Verse 2]
It's one of them unspoken rules
If things would not turn out the way we planned

You know that I would hurt
I can handle all of that
If I can still take your hand
Will you still think I am strong
If I admit that I was wrong
So now what?[Chorus]

I had this crazy idea
Somehow it goes to the end
Change lies in every direction, tonight
And I guess we'll just begin again
I hope you know you're my best friend

I had this crazy idea
Somehow it goes to the end
Change lies in every direction, tonight
And I guess we'll just begin again[Outro]

I guess we'll just begin again
I guess we'll just begin again
I guess we'll just begin again
I guess we'll just begin again
I guess we'll just begin again

I guess we'll just begin again
I guess we'll just begin again
