

Don't Give In to Him

Gary Puckett & The Union Gap

It starts out with a kiss

Even though you're only friends

Now there's nothing wrong with this

But this is where his act beginsHe'll hold you and tell you that's what love is for

    Oh, but don't give in to him

    No, don't give in to him

'Cause he will only ask for moreYou don't want to lose him

    So you let him have his way

    You don't dare refuse him

Because you know the price you'll payHe's braggin' that he's never lost before

    So don't give in to him

    No, no, don't give in to him

'Cause he will only ask for moreBaby, don't give in to him

    No, no, don't give in to him

'Cause I'm the one who loves you moreNo, no, don't give in to him

    Please don't give in to him
