

Under 21

Derreck Simons

The other night
Tried to go to a show
But the man at the door
He told me noHe said, "No one under 21 allowed"
But he must have been stupid
'Cause I saw my friends in the crowdHe said, you cant buy
An alcoholic drink
So we dont care
What you really thinkWhys this happened to me?
And the show was for free
It sucks to be
Under 21So I went and got myself
A plan that would work
And I went on home
And got a real short skirtAnd I flirt my way right
Through that goddamn door
But once inside
The music was no moreWell, I guess I got there
Just a bit too late
I guess its just my luck
Its just my fateWhys this happened to me?
And the show was for free
It sucks to be
Under 21I only want to have
A little fun
But every time I try
They tell me youre not 21
