

Passage to the Fourth World

Sinergy

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

I've runaway once again
That I can call home
But this time it's forever
I'm going back to the one place Every where I turn I find another dead end
Fourth world I am on my way
So I crash and burn, just start all over again Let me fly beyond your gates
You're my last hope for escape Grant me passage, give me freedom
I long to be where the stars in the sky are my footsteps
Why did I leave you at all, can you see when it brought me?
I'm so ashamed of the path I have taken in my life
Where every cloud is a stair leading closer to you Let me fly beyond your gates
Fourth world I am on my way
Grant me passage, give me freedom
You're my last hope for escape I can feel you in my veins One step closer to your fortress
Let me fly beyond your gates
You're my last hope for escape
Fourth world I am on my way
Grant me passage, give me freedom
