

Resistance

Front Line Assembly

One time, one place
You see a world
Where? pass away
Life slips through your hands in the air
Nothing stays the same?
once left to say
broken moment just standing still
And yet you fade away And now you can't pretend the passion of the sea
A glimmer for to rectify what you can't receive
A broken moment
Descended hero you? misery itself
before you?
again you wait for?
A tender place for one who see
? stand by your soul
