Wrecking Ball (press On)

Building 429

(feat. Blanca Callahan of Group 1 Crew)

Sometimes this world starts breaking me down
I get so lost I think Iâ€™ll never be found
And there are moments of fear and doubt
Even the best fall to the ground

I am a mess, I am a wrecking ball
I must confess that I still donâ€™t get it all
Lord I believe that all Your words are true
Doesnâ€™t matter where Iâ€™m going if Iâ€™m going with You
I press on, I press on, I press on
When I still donâ€™t get it

I see the world through my jaded eyes
I get frustrated when there is no Why
I put my focus on worthless things
Even the strong fall to their knees
God only knows what we all need

I am a mess, I am a wrecking ball

I must confess that I still donâ€™t get it all
Lord I believe that all your words are true
Doesnâ€™t matter where Iâ€™m going if Iâ€™m going with You
I press on, I press on, I press on
When I still donâ€™t get it

Life goes on, life goes on
But Your love will prove
All I need, all I need
I will find in You
Life goes on, life goes on
But Your love will prove
All I need, all I need
I will find in You
I press on

I am a mess, I am a wrecking ball
I must confess that I still donâ€™t get it all

Lord I believe that all Your words are true
Doesnâ€™t matter where Iâ€™m going if Iâ€™m going with You
I press on, I press on
I press on, I press on
When I still donâ€™t get it

Life goes on, life goes on
But Your love will prove
All I need, all I need
I will find in You
Life goes on, life goes on
But Your love will prove
All I need, all I need
I press on
