

Crazy Ain't Original

Sheryl Crow

Crazy ain't original these days
The world was going half-crazy anyway
Anything you can think of, it's all been done before
Crazy ain't original no more
Checking in and out and in and out of rehab
It ain't quite the shame it used to be
Well you're just a bigger star 'cause one bad
Mug shot makes you much more interesting
Crazy ain't original these days
The world was going half-crazy anyway
Anything you can think of, it's all been done before
Crazy ain't original no more
Well those neighbors we all tried to stay away from Twelve kids were not enough, they had thirteen
And what everybody used to call a freak show
Well now we call reality TV
Crazy ain't original these days
The world was going half-crazy anyway
Anything you can think of, it's all been done before
Crazy ain't original no more
Yea all these bankers down on Wall street riding Harleys
Weekend warriors breaking all the rules
All those grandmothers with their cosmetic surgeons
Do their best to look like they're still in high-school
Crazy ain't original these days
The world was going half-crazy anyway
Anything you can think of, it's all been done before
Crazy ain't original no more
Anything you can think of, it's all been done before
Crazy ain't original no more
