Bridges Of Stone

Hanson

Oh Yeah
You can only push someone so far
You can only break so many hearts
We used to be love one another
Now it's lust for your lover
Baby, I was trying to burn bridges of stone
Yeah
Chorus:
You can only wait
You can only wait so long
You can only wait
You can only wait so long
In this game we play
You can't tell right from wrong
You can only wait so long
There goes memories from yesterday
With all the poetry
Of all those things I couldn't even say
You can only wait so long
Before your flower petals are all gone
Baby, I was trying to burn bridges of stone
[Repeat Chorus]2X

Whoa, Whoa
Why couldn't you call out for me(Call out to me)
It's not like I was ever far away(Ever far Away)
Said, ohhh
I'll dive into the endless dark and deep
There's nothing left
But a million words to say
You can only push someone so far
You can only break so many hearts
We all have memories
And I've served my time in pain
Don't give into enemies
They'll just leave you in the rain
We will find a way somehow
Through this winding, twisting raod we've found
You won't find me crying for what used to be home

you won't find me trying to burn bridges of stone
[Repeat Chorus]3X
In this game we play
We can't tell right from wrong
Cause you can only wait so long
