The View of Everlast

Borknagar

Great and pounding in its way
Stirring the roaming cosmic sea
Oceans rise, planets igneous fall
As chaos and beauty in fierce rageFurious are the storms
Forever its rage carries on Disintergrating to create, upon fate
Wearing the web of solar cast
Hasting the view of EverlastExploding Imploding
Ascending, Descending
A spear through life and death
Exploding Imploding
Poised in all chaos directions
In fierce affectionSpawning the orbs of furious light
My sons of fire, you're children of the storm
Breeder of life, harvester of all
The last breath of the fallExploding Imploding
Ascending, Descending
A spear through life and death
Exploding Imploding
Poised in all chaos directions
In fierce affectionWeaving the web of solar cast
Hasting the views of Everlast
