

I Can't Breathe

Jerzee

Its not you, its not me
I guess we dont fit so perfectly (2x)
You cant stay, I cant breathe
Theres no fixing what cant be.
Well, I guess the honey moon is over
Cause baby you dont know how to act right
I know we do this all the time girl
But Im promising now is the last fight
We all ways yelling at each other
I swear we was enemies in the past life
But the funny thing is that we thought
Wed get along just last night
Now we dont always see eye to eye
But I swear girl that I try to put my pride aside
Im a man so its hard to hide
I just cant, so you start to cry
Baby dry your eyes
We both know this is for the best
Every heart beat in my chest
Still screams your name
But if we dont soon end this stress
There wont be no heartbeat left, yes
Its not you, its not me
I guess we dont fit so perfectly
You cant stay, I cant breathe
Theres no fixing what cant be
I never thought it would be us
Me you were suppose to be forever babe
But reality just creeped up
I was holding out, hope for some better day
But lately they just never come
No sunshine, now its only rain
They say love is a cruel game
Well Im here, wishing that I never played
Cause I would've been, better off
I wouldn't feel this pain, if I never lost
Wouldn't never cry, never felt soft
Before you came along, I was that strong

Now we hear trying to figure out
If we should quit, or stick around
Its different now
Cause my head is like kick her out
But my heart says one more round, well
Its not you, its not me
I guess we dont fit so perfectly
You cant stay, I cant breathe
Theres no fixing what cant be (2x)
My head is telling me to kick her out
But my heart says one more round (4x)
