Blew It Again

Blue Rodeo

You can live in the house and I will find a little place around the corner trouble comes from the strangest quarters it snuck up on us now without a warning Every night I hang my head outside into the stars it's a wonder I can even talk at all I walk by kids that hang on corners tripping out afraid of what they'll miss late at night I hear other voices crying out I never wanted this I played you all my favourite songs catch you when you fall you look at me saying that's not it at all Oh my I can't help wondering why I blew it again
I let you down
I watched your tears come splashing all around all my life I feel like I've been blind but the moments that shine are so hard to find Hey look those northern lights are dancing come on out and we'll sit here on the lawn we won't talk we'll only listen maybe we can stop what's going on Every night we look out on what's left of all our dreams it's a wonder we still can talk at all Oh my I can't help wondering why I blew it again
I let you down
I watched your tears come splashing on the ground all my life I feel like I've been blind
are so hard to find
