

Sorry About This Place

Raven Bishop

Sorry sorry about this place.
Didn't mean for this mess.
Baby I made your day.
And I gave you hell.
Another year passed.
We barely talk civil or even at all.
Do you check your email?
You don't have a place there.
Or even in my heart.
Or your heart.
Don't call me up.
Don't call me up.
Stone cold we are.
Time to change the channel.
But you got it on repeat.
You got it on repeat.
There's not a way back.
But you stole my heart.
Give it back.I'm sorry I made you feel.
You seem so blue.
You are so tortured.
And I can't live it through.
Not for one day.Because I think of us.
And its not enough.
This test won't pass.
And I'm left with the mess.
And I'm in a trance.
This was the way I was left.
You put me through enough.
I learned my lesson.
Time's are tough.
Stand up, Stand up.
And grow up.
Leave me be.
Let us be.Sorry sorry about this place.
Didn't mean for this mess.
Baby I made your day.
And I gave you hell.
Another year passed.

We barely talk civil or even at all.
Do you check your email?
You don't have a place there.
Or even in my heart.
Or your heart.
