

Pravus (Metalheads EZX)

Meshuggah

Drooling floods of Led
Armed with distorted belief
Sharp munition spat from our minds
Malignancy-rounds, automatic fire
Black, acidic bile
Seeping wounds of shattered souls
Still not pissing out fast enough
To quench our thirst for it to bleed us dry
Vile, ever-menacing intent
Repulsive belligerence shot from toxic minds
Blatant disregard for all but self
Proudly flaunting the depravity of a race condemned, malign
Iterate, repeat these my words
Recite the mantra of late
I will corrupt and impair
Vitiate, dispirit, debase, violate
