

Olympic Dreams

Mr. President

No day before
so full of deep devotion and in my heart
I feel a strong emotion Olympic fire
wakes my desire to join in the games of the world So far away the day's of pain and sorrow enjoy the games

there's a new tomorrow
let's share the story of fame and glory

the party of friendship for all Refrain: Goin' for Olympic dreams Goin' for the gold
Goin' for the medals
That I never thought I'd hold Flyin' on the wings of freedom reachin' for the sky

the Olympic dreams will never die
The time has come just do it now or never a star is born
and it will last forever congratulations
and celebrations
it's only one moment in time Refrain: The winner really takes it all no loser will be standing small so come on let us celebrate together Refrain
