

The Customer Is Always Right

The Backyardigans

There's a problem here, what do you mean?
We came to see something we haven't seen
That's not our fault, we really tried
Well not enough, we're not satisfied
And I don't mean to be a jerk
But let me tell you 'bout how these things work
See, I am the customer
And the customer is always right
She's right
I am the customer
And the customer is always right
We've done the best that we can do
This awesome ride is almost through
This awesome swamp with awesome stuff
Well, I just think it's not enough
And you think right my purple friend
And I'd say this is not the end
Cause I am the customer
And the customer is always right
Oh, yeah
You are the customer
And the customer is always right
