Can't Get Away

Mint Condition

I miss the sand on the concrete floor
I miss the way it was before
No one even knew me
Your eyes looked right through me
And I'm takin' off your clothes
And you bloom like a rose
Can't get away from you
I can't get away from you
And where the ocean meets the land
Is like the slidin' of your hand
That prickles up my skin
And I can feel the changing weather
While alone along that coast
It sends memories of your ghost
Away from you
I can't get away from you
I can't get away from you
I can't get away from you
Deliver me
(Turn to me and one thing that trips me up)
Shut me up
(One thing that trips me up, one thing, won't give it up)
Deliver me
(One thing close to me and one thing that trips me up)
(One thing reminded me and I go and walk alone)
Deliver me
(One thing [Incomprehensible])
Deliver me
(One thing won't let me go, no and I can't go home)
Deliver me
Through the airport corridors
In the magazines, in stores
If I see your face once more
'Cause you know I can't ignore it
And I recognize that pose
When you bloomed like a rose
I can't get away from you
I can't get away from you
I can't get away from you

I can't get away from you
The jeep gets broken on a blown out road
And I'm a tourist with a real light load
And with the government hold another month away
The messed up places where we always stayed
Funny when we always pick these spots
Feeling like I have in the land of 'have nots'
Sleeping on cots, wishing that I had some tater-tots
And there's postcards written
I know I'll never send
The moment is gone
And it won't come again
I ride with souls that find no peace
Still I look to you to find release
Find release, find release
I walked with travelers returning through the panic doors
Walking through the airport corridors
Welcome back now from foreign shores
And I walk alone and the ghost that I carry is you
Tiger sharks in the azure blue
The vision you had returns to you
Returns to you, returns to you
