

Little Girl

Lalah Hathaway

bling~~bling, nah, nah, nah, nah... uhm, uhm, uhm, uhm...

flash back to a mid-west town... in a time of renaissance, an innocent child saturdays and soul train music feeds a budding mind pain and glory on your FM dial just a little girl in a big world (big world)

hiding in the shadow of the light

ohhh listen to the voice of your divine moma, in that big o' lincoln fryin' fish good to the bone two baby girls ouu ouu she did it alone did it alone, did it alone...

daddy in that big o'sky, ran fast maybe too fast sometimes always there right here yea pain and glory on my FM dial

just a little girl in a big world

ohhh listen to the voice of your divine wo, wo, wo, wo, wo, whatchu wanna know, yea whatchu wanna know, whatchu wanna know ohhhh yea

just a little girl in a big world (in a big world)

...whatchu wanna know

...whatchu wanna know, hmm, hmm.

[monologue background...

different aspects of life, you know the good, the bad, the positive, simply entitled LIFE, the negative, the dull, the exciting, the whole thing, attention, the conflict---little girl]

hiding in the shadow of the light---yea, yea, yea

just a little girl in a big world

ohhh listen to the voice of your divine

just a little girl in a big world
pain and glory on my FM dial (flash back)
pain and glory on my FM dial (flash back)
pain and glory on my FM dial
