Saturated

Kasey Chambers

I've been actin', high and mighty
It's just a liar here inside me
It's complicated but so sincere
I'm saturated from livin' in hereI never wanted anythin'
But a record and a band
I never wanted anythin'
I didn't understandI should've known better
I should've broke free
I should've known better
There ain't no guaranteesIt shattered slowly
It's broken through
I should've known better
Than to let myself fall for youI've been payin' less attention
It's hard to have the best intention
It's complicated but so sincere
I'm saturated from livin' in hereI never wanted anything
But a house to call a home
I never wanted anything
But to never be aloneI should've known better
I should've broke free
I should've known better
There ain't no guaranteesIt shattered slowly
It's broken through
I should've known better
Than to let myself fall for you
Fall for youIt shattered slowly
It's broken through
I should've known better
Than to let myself fall for you
Fall
