

High Frequency

Michael Blume

Sometimes I'll feel
Disconnected
Cuz I know I'm going far
I'd been depressed, depressed, been repressed
Been pressed against the walls
The result is that I'm crazy
A lil bit crazy I don't even know
I got these bruises, they made me stronger
Made me prouder I've grown tall
I'm on a high frequency
I'm on a high frequency To all the lovers I say thank you
To all the haters thank you too
I need your hating to keep me running
You keep me young and I need your truth
I will give you
all my heart and
I will let you see inside, oh oh
It's a spectacle, it's a drama
I got nothing left to hide I'm on a high frequency
I'm on a high frequency I'm not afraid of anything
Cuz I can give you everything
Come on baby come let's play
You're gonna give what I say
I don't rush just the way when I arrive
Keep my close friends right by my side
Know that everything's gon be alright
See the finish line, I'm coming right on time
I don't rush just the way when I arrive
Keep my close friends right by my side
Know that everything's gon be alright
See the finish line, I'm coming right on time I'm on a high frequency
I'm on a high frequency
I'm on a high frequency
I'm on a high frequency
I'm on a high frequency
(I don't rush just the way when I arrive
Keep my close friends right by my side
Know that everything's gon be alright
See the finish line, I'm coming right on time)

I'm on a high frequency
(I don't rush just the way when I arrive
Keep my close friends right by my side
Know that everything's gon be alright
See the finish line, I'm coming right on time)
