Bad Relationships Are An Indefinite Health Risk (B

This Rigid Empire

We won't fight
We won't fight
Words blow up like dynamite
We won't fight
We won't fight
Cause words blow up like
DYNAMITE

I'm sorry
This lie went on so far
These stupid fights start every night
And no one could save us

And I'm sorry
I want this to be right
I'll take the car and drive so far
We need to sort this out

But please don't worry
I'll be home when you call
I'm waiting for an answer
But there's never one at all

But please don't worry
I'll be home when you call
Hope we don't hit another wall

And I'm sorry
I know this was my fault
I swear I tried I never lied
But I just wasn't there to catch you

And I'm sorry
I can't take it anymore
Those things weren't true I still love you
Only time could fix this

We won't fight
We won't fight

Words blow up like dynamite

We won't fight
We won't fight
Cause words blow up like dynamite
Those words blow up like dynamite

Tonight.
