

Weightless

Pigface

you can speak the bigger eyes are lies the silence burns you, you can close your eyes waiting to be over, to be over you can beat the bigot man the sucker of his slaves to be over to be over the pain and again I'll make it good the first rat it's followed logic blind in a stranger to be over to be over to be over still cry to the years, a stillborn suffers strangers laugh out loud the prey is in a predator shadows guns and walls in silence fleeting wounded
the first time I saw you here your skin was still intact the shore caressed you in viole(n?)t face, in cruciform for saints then in doubt, for seconds now the shaking hoops revolve undecided, undecided, injured out of place still frozen intact, it's blown apart, flameless brain still cry to the years, its sentiment is weightless too much time is weightless
leaving me wounded and shaking the sweat on the infants undermine
